

PA TANF & CCDF Spending: Quarterly Update

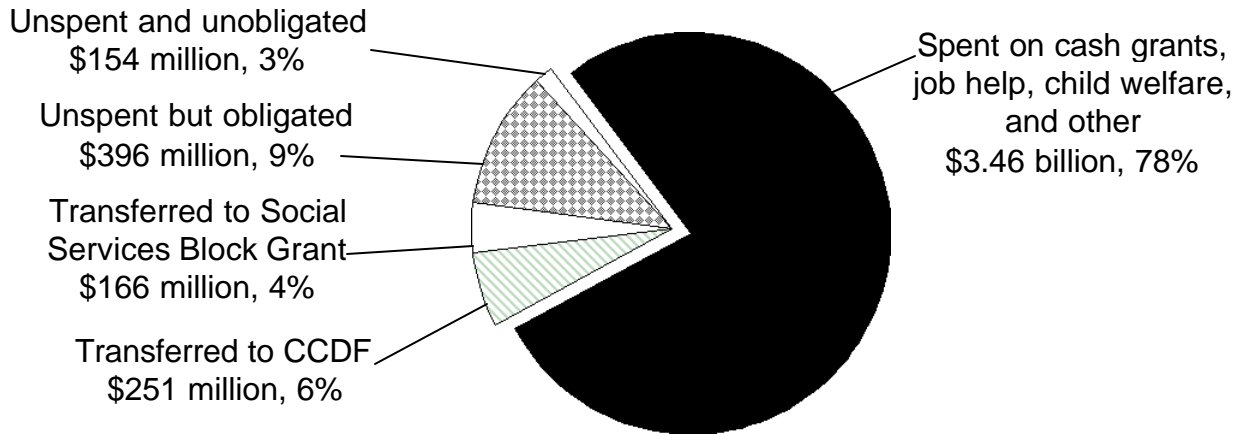

June 2003

In March 2003, 161,208 Pennsylvania children were receiving TANF

From the beginning of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) in March 1997 through March 2003, Pennsylvania has not spent $551 million of its total TANF award. However, $396 million of that has been obligated for future spending.

PA TANF spending as of March 31, 2003*

Total TANF federal dollars to Pennsylvania: $4.43 billion

PA Child Care Development Fund spending as of March 31, 2003

Total CCDF federal dollars to Pennsylvania: $869 million

Transferred from TANF to CCDF: $251 million

Total dollars available for CCDF: $1.02 billion

Unspent and unobligated: $6.7 million

Endnotes

* Cumulative: October 1, 1996, through March 31, 2003.

 Cumulative: October 1, 1997, through March 31, 2003

Source: Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare ACF-196 and ACF-696 financial reports to U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Tracking TANF and Child Care Development Fund spending is part of Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children's State Fiscal Analysis Initiative, an effort to strengthen the contributions of state-level non-profit organizations to policy debates by enhancing their ability to provide reliable budget and tax analysis. PPC's participation in SFAI is funded by the Annie E. Casey Foundation, Howard Heinz Endowment, and William Penn Foundation.

Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children is a strong, effective, and trusted voice for improving the health, early education, and well-being of the Commonwealth's children. Joan L. Benso, President and CEO.