

PA TANF & CCDF Spending: Quarterly Update

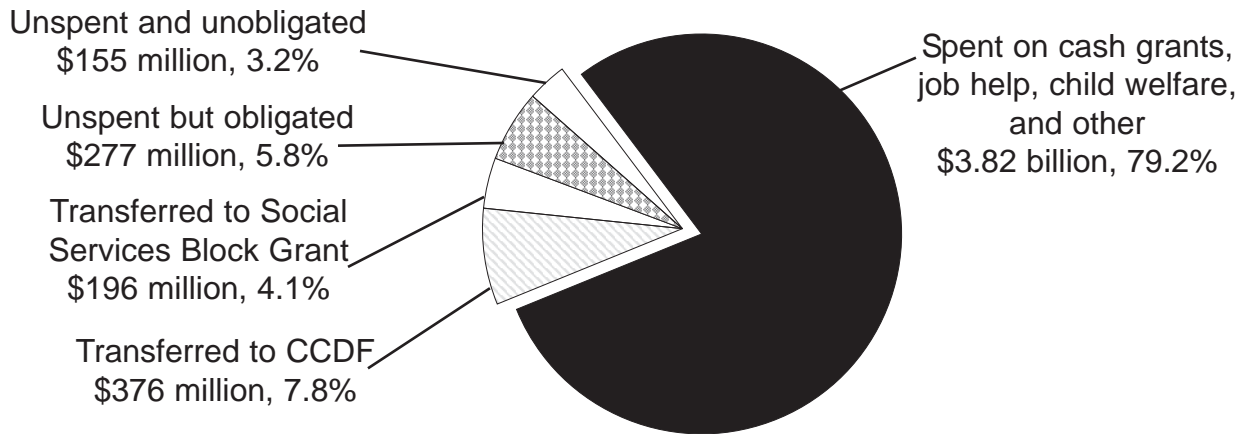

December 2003

In September 2003, 167,127 Pennsylvania children were receiving TANF

From the beginning of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) in March 1997 through September 2003, Pennsylvania has not spent $433 million of its total TANF award. However, $277 million of that has been obligated for future spending.

PA TANF spending as of September 30, 2003*

Total TANF federal dollars to Pennsylvania: $4.82 billion

PA Child Care Development Fund spending as of September 30, 2003

Total CCDF federal dollars to Pennsylvania: $923 million

Transferred from TANF to CCDF: $376 million

Total dollars available for CCDF: $1.3 billion

Unspent and unobligated: $1.6 million

- Visit Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children's redesigned Web site, www.papartnerships.org
- Find data on children by legislative district and county, www.papartnerships.org/kc

Endnotes

* Cumulative: October 1, 1996, through September 30, 2003.

 Cumulative: October 1, 1997, through September 30, 2003

Source: Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare ACF-196 and ACF-696 financial reports to U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Tracking TANF and Child Care Development Fund spending is part of Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children's State Fiscal Analysis Initiative, an effort to strengthen the contributions of state-level non-profit organizations to policy debates by enhancing their ability to provide reliable budget and tax analysis. PPC's participation in SFAI is funded by the Annie E. Casey Foundation, Howard Heinz Endowment, and William Penn Foundation.

Pennsylvania Partnerships for Children is a strong, effective, and trusted voice for improving the health, early education, and well-being of the Commonwealth's children. Joan L. Benso, President and CEO.